

be no relief until a party came into power pledged to wipe out this obnoxious law. You are not a member of the Junior Senator boarding house," remarked Mr. Stewart sotto voce.

Mr. Lodge Answered.
Mr. Gallinger and Mr. Wilson paid their respects to Mr. Lodge for his characterization of their "stale jokes." Mr. Gallinger referred to the very aesthetic tastes and the superior refinement of the Junior Senator from Massachusetts, and declared that he would vote and state his views as he saw fit, without reference to the aestheticism of the people of Massachusetts.

Mr. Wilson's good natured remarks, Mr. Lodge's words and caused much amusement by describing the method of civil service examination of an assistant seamstress and a washerwoman for the Catholic Indian school, and a "skilled egg and poultry producer." Mr. Wilson, in closing, said that he would tell the Senator from Maryland (Mr. Cramer) that before this Congress closed an opportunity would be given to repeal this civil service law.

The Investigation Broadened.
Mr. Hovard proposed that the investigation be broadened so as to instruct the civil service committee not only to examine into the South Omaha cases, but also to examine further into the conduct of the civil service law and whether it shall be continued, amended or repealed.

This was accepted by Mr. Allen and incorporated in the resolution, which was then agreed to.

THE HOUSE.
There were less than fifty members on the floor when the House entered upon the second day of the tariff debate at 10 o'clock. There were only a few strangers in the galleries. As the day advanced the members poured in, and the galleries became crowded. Before the debate was resumed today Mr. Wilson (S. C.), who was absent on the opening day of the session, was sworn in.

Mr. Gibson (Tenn.) was the first speaker. He devoted himself to a general argument in favor of protection.

Mr. Dockery, who followed, said it was not a matter of surprise to him that the discussion of the bill thus far had been so uninteresting and unimportant. He said he, "the people of this country want more money and less taxes (democratic applause). This bill does not represent the people of this country. It is a bill to put in circulation that more money at a sacrifice to the treasury."

Mr. Dockery said he did not like the mouths of the republicans to criticize the bond issues of the last administration. He said he, "the people of this country want more money and less taxes (democratic applause). This bill does not represent the people of this country. It is a bill to put in circulation that more money at a sacrifice to the treasury."

The Grange Strike Referred To.
Mr. Ray attempted to pursue the subject, but Mr. Dockery would not yield further. Continuing, Mr. Dockery ridiculed the idea that the present tariff law was the monster which had destroyed our industries. If it had done so, why, he asked, had the republicans members of the ways and means committee lifted the metal and cotton duties aimed at the Grange?

BUREAU OF AMERICAN REPUBLICS.
No Doubt of Mr. Smith's Ultimate Appointment as Chief.
The executive committee of the bureau of American republics will meet tomorrow afternoon to consider finally the proposed change in the office of director of the bureau. Mr. Clinton Furbush, the present director, has placed his resignation in the hands of the committee, and it will be accepted at tomorrow's meeting. It is the present intention of the executive committee to fill the vacancy by competitive examination, according to the rules laid down in the plan of reorganization. Already a number of applications have been received from persons who are willing to accept the position, and it will be a matter of some interest to the public to know who will be selected.

GEN. LEE NOT RECALLED.
No Question of a Change in His Office Considered.
Consul General Lee has been recalled. Secretary Sherman is authority for the statement that the question of a change in the office of consul general at Havana has not yet been seriously considered. Gen. Lee has resigned, and it is not improbable that his successor will be appointed before long.

WRECK ON THE BIG FOUR.
A Freight Train Breaks in Two and the Parts Later Come Together.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 23.—A special from Springfield, Ohio, to the Dispatch says: "There was a wreck on the Big Four, Wm. Kinsley, St. Louis, both legs crushed and back injured; Edward Kinsley, St. Louis, legs hurt; Frank Fay, St. Louis, head cut, right leg and shoulder injured; Wm. Sney, Jersey City, shoulder, head and back hurt."

Patents Allowed.
Patents were granted to the following Washington inventors today: W. H. and L. S. Driggs and the American Ordnance Company, carriage for field artillery; Frank H. Dyer, Jr., and J. H. Dyer, Jr., a device for a distilling apparatus; James E. Kynan and K. B. Miller, telephone exchange system.

Mr. Johns Accused.
As indicated in The Evening Star yesterday, Rev. Arthur S. Johns, the present pastor of Christ Church, Rockville, Md., accepted the call to Christ Church, East Washington, which the vestry unanimously extended to him. The exact time when Mr. Johns will take charge of his new parish has not been fixed, but he will probably be installed some time in the early summer.

No Quorum Present.
The meeting of press correspondents that was to take place at the Senate press gallery today for the purpose of passing upon a number of proposed rules for the government of the gallery, was postponed for one week on account of no quorum being present. One-half of the members of the press gallery is a quorum for the transaction of business.

French Transport at Cana.
CANEA, Italian Crete, March 23.—The French transport Aquila has arrived at Suda Bay with 450 marines on board.

The Helena in New London.
NEW LONDON, Conn., March 23.—The gunboat Helena has arrived here from Newport News for her official trial trip.

It Matters Little What It Is That You Want.
If you want anything, try an ad. In The Star. If anybody has what you wish, you will get an answer.

Ex-Representative Wm. C. Maybury Nominated.
DETROIT, Mich., March 23.—William C. Maybury, a well-known leading attorney, was nominated for mayor today by the democratic city convention. He will make a run against Captain Stewart, the Pinckney candidate.

Bishop Pare's Return.
NEW YORK, March 23.—The Right Rev. Wm. Pare, Episcopal bishop of Maryland, who arrived last night from Kingston, Jamaica.

Chapman Case Again Postponed.
The United States Supreme Court again postponed the hearing on the habeas corpus petition of Elvira R. Chapman, the recalcitrant sugar investigation witness, until tomorrow, but it was announced that it could not be further deferred to a later date, the same time on Chapman's petition for a writ of certiorari to the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. This matter, it was stated by the court, will be given a separate hearing, and taken up after the disposal of the habeas corpus question.

Baltimore Markets.
BALTIMORE, March 23.—Flour dull, unchanged; receipts, 8,625 barrels; exports, 178 barrels; sales, 450 barrels. Wheat dull and easy; spot, 67 1/2c.

LATE NEWS BY WIRE

Report of a Break in the Levee Was an Error.

ENCOURAGING TIDINGS AT MEMPHIS

Three Thousand Homeless Persons on Chickasaw Bluffs.

CHICAGO SUBURBS FLOODED

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 23.—Authentic information comes at 10 o'clock today that the reported break at Australia, Miss., was an error. A telegram from the scene says that the levee has not broken, and that the water is rising. This is the most encouraging news of the week, because of the great importance of the levee at that point. Last night there was a heavy rainfall, which seemed to be entirely local, resulting in no damage.

The river at this point shows a decline of 1 1/2 in twenty-four hours, which, taken with today's bright sunshine, makes the outlook very encouraging.

The relief boats have ceased running, but there are 3,000 homeless persons on Chickasaw bluffs, for whom outside aid is asked.

ROSEDALE, Miss., March 23.—The river has risen along the extreme lower end of the second levee district at Australia, Miss., twenty miles north of here, and the situation is critical in the extreme. A large number of people are building rafts and levees, and has increased to such an alarming extent that Maj. Sterling, the chief engineer, was sent north. Later another call was made for 3,000 sacks and 300 shovels, and all the hands that could wield a shovel to come quick or the line would give way. A special train has left Greenville, Miss., with the materials, and is being pushed up the hands between Beulah, Miss., and Round Lake, the latter point being opposite the threatened spot.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 23.—The Big bluffs river is higher than it was during the flood of 1881. Twelve bridges have been swept away. The Sioux Falls river is a mile wide, the bottoms being covered to a depth of three feet. An immense gorge of ice has formed above the city, and is slowly coming toward town. But little ice has gone out of the river.

CHICAGO, Mo., March 23.—Chicago suburbs are having a flood experience. For the second time in thirty years the Des Moines river has tossed aside the restraints of its banks, and the flood has stretched its arms over all the lowlands along its course.

One-third of the residence part of Riverside is under water, and the water is so high that it is impossible to get to the houses. The Illinois and Michigan canal has been unable to hold in check the combination of its own and the added volume of surface water from the overflow of its banks and the Chicago river.

Residents of Thatcher Park Station and Edgewater Park are going about from the city, having no other means of transportation being cut off by the waters of the Des Moines river, which has overflowed its banks in that vicinity.

WEEKS CONFESSES.

Was With Amy Smith Shortly Before She Died.
NEW YORK, March 23.—Nelson M. Weeks, whose name was mentioned in the Hackensack case, died at the Hotel Victor two weeks ago, surrendered himself at the coroner's office today. He was accompanied by his brother Theodore of Long Island City. Weeks' son, a lad of sixteen years, met him at the coroner's office and greeted him with a smile. He had come out just where Weeks has been since the death of the Smith girl.

The coroner's inquest on the body of the late Coroner Dobbs took place this morning at the residence of Mr. Joseph Victor, who was the coroner at the time. After being in court for several months, he had been assigned to a room. After being in court for several months, he had been assigned to a room.

When the doctor had gone, Miss Smith, who was the coroner at the time, was asked to leave. He then left the hotel. Corner Dobbs took place that he would have to leave the hotel. He then left the hotel.

A NEW NAME MENTIONED

Gossip Today Concerning the District Commissionership.

Mr. Harry L. West in the Field—

Friends of All Candidates Actively at Work.

Gossip regarding the probable action of President McKinley in appointing a successor to Commissioner Ross presented new and interesting features today, and a name not hitherto mentioned in connection with the office was seriously spoken of as that of the probable appointee. It became known this morning that the friends of Mr. Harry L. West, the well-known newspaper man, had recommended him to the President as the successor to Commissioner Ross, and had strongly emphasized his availability and qualifications for the position.

The presentation of Mr. West's name is understood to have been caused by a belief that President McKinley did not intend to reappoint Mr. Ross. One reason for the impression that Mr. Ross will not be reappointed is the fact that Mr. W. V. Cox, the president of the Brightwood Citizens' Association, has been nominated himself some time ago as a candidate for Commissioner in case Mr. Ross was not to be reappointed.

It was not until last week by Secretary Porter to have all his papers on file at the White House by 12 o'clock Saturday. This was taken to mean that the President had concluded to select some other one than Mr. Ross. Mr. Cox's papers, however, did not reach the White House Saturday, but are on file there now, and he is understood to have been nominated.

The passage of the pooling bill, perhaps, the most satisfactory solution of the legal difficulties created by the decision, meaning the various organizations interested in the maintenance of rates must be separately indicted if the government is to continue the fight. The time required for further legal proceedings will afford ample opportunity to the railroads for devising means of accomplishing the desired end under legal sanction.

The Vanderbilts, which yesterday displayed a marked contrast to the weakness in neighboring groups, yielded to a sense of duty and have been recovered followed from an increased demand at the decline.

The Granger shares were weak, but less so than the specialties which have lately come into prominence, because of individual developments. American Sugar yielded to a renewed selling for a loss of more than 1 per cent, the anti-trust ruling tariff forecasts combining to aid the decline.

Washington advices assert that the sugar protection is only one-eighth of 1 per cent, and therefore unsatisfactory to the refiners. This, at least, has been the contention of the framers of the bill, but the American company's profits are not jeopardized to the extent of an enforced reduction in dividends.

GENERAL MARKET REPORTS

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star.
NEW YORK, March 23.—Yesterday's decision in the Trans-Missouri Freight Association case was construed adversely to values in all departments of the railway list this morning. The possibility of escape from the grasp of the Sherman law, which still exists, and officers of the Joint Traffic Association believe that a plan may be devised whereby immunity may be had from legal proceedings under the law in question.
